

✓ Flagler College is a provisional member of the National Collegiate Athletics Association Division II.

✓ Flagler sponsors 12 intercollegiate athletic programs: baseball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country, men's and women's golf, men's and women's soccer, men's and women's tennis, and volleyball.

✓ More than 100 Flagler athletes have been named NAIA All-American.

✓ Since 1990, baseball has had 19 players sign professional contracts and in 2006 had its first Major Leaguer in Chris Barnwell.

✓ In 2006, the men's golf team won the Florida Sun Conference and Region XIV Championships and competed at the NAIA National Tournament and was ranked as high as No. 2 in the country. They also won conference championships in 2004 and 2005.

✓ The men's tennis team advanced to the NAIA National Tournament for the third year in a row and the sixth time since 2000.

✓ The men's basketball team participated in three consecutive NAIA Division II National Tournaments (2003-04-05). The Saints won the Florida Sun Conference title in 2004 and 2005.

✓ In 2002, the men's soccer team advanced to the NAIA National Tournament.

✓ The women's volleyball team posted a 32-2 record in 2002 – a program best. They won back-to-back Florida Sun Conference Championships in 2004 and 2005.

✓ In 2000 and 2001 the women's basketball team won the Florida Sun Conference and advanced to the NAIA Division II National Tournament.
